

PSYCHOLOGY MINOR

Students develop their minor programs in consultation with a designated minor adviser in the Department of Psychology. The department will accept courses that are required by a student's major in fulfillment of requirements in the minor.

Normally, a minimum of 3.0 GPA is required for students to be admitted to the minor. Students majoring in all disciplines are eligible to apply for this minor; however, only a limited number of students can be accepted based on course availability.

Requirements

Code	Title	Credits
PSYC 10300	General Psychology	3
PSYC xxxx	Five additional psychology courses	16-18
• At least four credits at the 200-level with the ACS attribute
• At least six credits at the 300- or 400-level
Total Credits		19-21