

TRANSLATION STUDIES MINOR

The Translation Studies minor is designed to complement any academic major. It provides students interested in pursuing translation of written texts as a career or as an area of academic research with the opportunity to acquire skills and experience in the field. Students may choose to translate from French, German, Italian or Spanish into English or vice versa. Completing a Translation Studies minor will position students to engage in freelance work in translation, undertake diverse career opportunities, and prepare for graduate school.

Requirements

Code	Title	Credits
Core Requirements
LNGS 19402 or LNGS 25000	Introduction to the Art of Translation Translation: The Art of Disguise	3
LNGS 23200	Introduction to Linguistics	3
LNGS 49800	Senior Project in Translation	3
Language-Specific Requirements ¹
Select one of the following language sequences: ²		9
FREN 35500	French Translation in Practice
FREN xxxxx	Six credits at level 3 or above, taught in French
or
GERM 35500	German Translation in Practice
GERM xxxxx	Six credits at level 3 or above, taught in German
or
ITAL 35500	Italian Translation in Practice
ITAL xxxxx	Six credits at level 3 or above, taught in Italian
or
SPAN 35500	Spanish Translation in Practice
SPAN xxxxx	Six credits at level 3 or above, taught in Spanish
Total Credits		18

¹ Language majors may use a maximum of 6 credits from their major program toward the Translation Studies minor. Language minors may use a maximum of 3 credits from their minor program toward the Translation Studies minor.

² The following conversation courses cannot count towards this minor requirement: FREN 34200, GERM 32300, ITAL 32300, ITAL 32400, SPAN 32300, or SPAN 32400.