

MICRO-CREDENTIAL IN WRITING FOR SOCIAL CHANGE

---

This micro-credential develops the basic analytical and writing skills necessary for social activism. Students learn how to inform and persuade citizens about public issues, promote political causes and civic organizations, and propose solutions to social problems.

Micro-Credential in Writing for Social Change

Code	Title	Credits
Writing for Social Change Requirements
Select one of the following:		4
POLT 10100	U.S. Politics and Public Policy
SOCI 20800	Social Change
Select two of the following:		8
WRTG 20100	Argument: Rhetoric and Ethics
WRTG 31100	Writing for the Professions
WRTG 31700	Proposal and Grant Writing
WRTG 32000	Public Rhetorics and Writing
Total Credits		12

<sup>1</sup> All courses for this micro-credential must be taken for a grade

<sup>2</sup> Some courses in this micro-credential may require additional prerequisites