Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Science

Ainsley Anderson, Instructor and Chair, Degree Coordinator of Theatrical Production & Design

Amanda Spooner, Assistant Professor and Degree Coordinator of Stage Management

Ryan Dickson, Instructor and Degree Coordinator of Theatre Arts Management

The Department of Theatre Production and Management is situated in the Center for Theatre and Dance within the School of Music, Theatre and Dance and offers curricula leading to the bachelor of fine arts in theatre production and design and stage management as well as the bachelor of science in theatre arts management. For information about each major, contact the program coordinator.

- Stage Management Major - B.F.A.: The bachelor of fine arts degree in stage management is a student-centered pre-professional program that combines hands-on experience and theory with a liberal arts education.
- Theatre Arts Management Major - B.S.: The bachelor of science degree combines intensive training in all aspects of theatre management with a well-rounded education in the liberal arts. This is accomplished through formal classwork in the Department of Theatre Arts, School of Business, the Roy H. Park School of Communications, internships, and required co-curricular practicum assignments managing operations of Ithaca College Theatre.
- Theatre Production and Design Major - B.F.A.: The bachelor of fine arts degree in theatre production and design offers pre-professional intensive training with concentrations in theatre design and technical production.
